Axxess Named The Best Small Place to Work in IT
by IDG's Computerworld

Easy-To-Use Interface Enables Seamless Documentation for Home Healthcare Providers

DALLAS, June 13, 2016 -- Axxess, a national leader in home health management software, has been named as the number one small place to work in IT by IDG's Computerworld's 2016 Best Places to Work in IT.

Based on comprehensive questionnaires and in depth employee surveys, Axxess ranked as the best among the top 29 organizations of the same size that challenge their IT staffs, while providing great benefits and compensation.

"At Axxess, we strive to create an environment where our people are encouraged to collaborate, innovate and be entrepreneurs," says president and CEO John Olajide. "Our people are our greatest asset, and we're dedicated to investing in them and creating an environment that makes them proud to be a part of the Axxess family."

The Axxess culture emphasizes excellence, innovation, transparency, diversity and inclusion in everything it does. By ensuring all employees know the long-term goals of the company, everybody is encouraged to present ideas—the best of which win, no matter where they come from—and build their careers on their terms.

"The organizations on this year's Best Places to Work in IT list excel at creating a dynamic and satisfying IT work environment," says Scot Finnie, editor in chief of Computerworld. "In a competitive market for tech talent, these outstanding employers are able to attract highly skilled IT pros by offering great benefits, new learning opportunities, access to cutting-edge technologies and challenging, business-critical projects."

About the Best Places to Work in IT list

The Best Places to Work in Information Technology (IT) list is an annual ranking of the top 100 work environments for technology professionals by IDG's Computerworld. The list is compiled based on a comprehensive questionnaire regarding company offerings in categories such as benefits, career development, training and retention. In addition, Computerworld conducts extensive surveys of IT workers, and their responses factor heavily in determining the rankings.
