Axxess Partners With Rellevate to Offer Innovative Financial Technology Services to Clients

DALLAS, June 17, 2025 – Axxess, the leading global technology innovator for healthcare at home, has partnered with Rellevate, a leading provider of financial technology services, to offer Axxess clients innovative digital banking and payment solutions tailored to the unique needs of the healthcare workforce.

This partnership enables Axxess clients to leverage Rellevate's instant payment platform so staff can get paid faster. By streamlining payments, providing timely access to earned wages, and supporting financial wellness, Rellevate helps healthcare organizations attract and retain top talent while reducing administrative burden.

"By partnering with Rellevate, we are empowering our clients to enhance their workforces' financial wellness and satisfaction through faster wage access and comprehensive financial services," said Chris Taylor, senior vice president of channel partnerships at Axxess.

Rellevate and Axxess are united in their mission to empower healthcare organizations and professionals with secure, convenient and modern financial tools that make a real difference in their day-to-day lives.

"We are incredibly excited about this strategic partnership with Axxess," said Stewart A. Stockdale, Rellevate co-founder, chairman and CEO. "The healthcare sector is the backbone of our communities, and its workforce deserves financial tools that are as dynamic and dedicated as they are. This partnership enables us to expand our innovative digital banking and payment solutions to a sector that greatly benefits from enhanced financial flexibility and wellness. We believe this collaboration with Axxess will not only streamline operations but, more importantly, empower countless frontline caregivers with secure and convenient access to their earned wages and comprehensive financial services, recognizing their invaluable contributions."
