Axxess Partners with PlayMaker Health to Deliver Referral and Growth Data Intelligence for Home Health and Hospice Clients

Axxess to Make PlayMaker Health Data Available for More than 2,000 Clients

DALLAS, Tex., and NASHVILLE, Tenn., August 8, 2019 – Axxess, the leading home healthcare technology company, has partnered with PlayMaker Health, the post-acute industry's leading market data and growth solution provider, to deliver current market data and referral intelligence for their home health and hospice agency clients.

The integration of PlayMaker Health's data capabilities provides Axxess' more than 2,000 clients complete visibility into key service areas by leveraging the most up-to-date and comprehensive claims and sales data available.

"The integration with PlayMaker Health's data and growth intelligence complements Axxess' easy-to-use suite of solutions, giving our home health and hospice agencies the sales and marketing data visibility they need to grow their business and increase market share," said John Olajide, Axxess founder and chief executive officer. "This partnership will enable Axxess clients to better track referral sources and diversify their patient mix using PlayMaker Health's valuable data."

"The integration of Axxess' user-friendly point-of-care technology solutions with PlayMaker Health's platform gives more than 2,000 additional post-acute providers a unified view of all their referral, sales and performance data," said John Griscavage, chief executive officer of PlayMaker Health. "This combination delivers the in-depth and actionable sales insights they need to scale smartly and run more efficiently."
