for Hospice Clients

DALLAS, September 29, 2026 – Axxess, the leading global technology platform transforming how care is delivered in the home, has partnered with Eazewell, an AI-powered life-event execution platform, to help hospice providers better support families during and after the end-of-life journey. Through this partnership, Axxess clients gain access to a family support service that helps streamline post-loss responsibilities, including Social Security Administration notifications, insurance claim initiation, account closures and estate-related tasks.

“Our partnership with Eazewell reflects Axxess’ commitment to supporting hospice providers with innovative solutions,” said Tim Ingram, executive vice president of partnerships at Axxess. “Eazewell helps clients simplify end-of-life administrative tasks, improve family support and communication, and reduce operational burden so care teams can focus on delivering compassionate care.”

"Hospices make a promise to families that doesn't end when a patient dies, and the months after a loss are where that promise gets tested," said Donnell Beverly Jr., co-founder and CEO of Eazewell. "Axxess has built the most comprehensive technology platform in hospice, and this partnership carries that commitment into the family experience. Eazewell takes on the administrative work families face after a death, from Social Security notifications to insurance claims and account closures, under the hospice's name and with a documented record of every step. Together, we're giving Axxess clients a practical way to keep that promise."
