Axxess Partners With Henry Schein Home Solutions to Simplify Access to Medical Supplies and Equipment for Clients

DALLAS, November 9, 2026 – Axxess, the leading global technology platform transforming how care is delivered in the home, has partnered with Henry Schein Home Solutions, a national distributor offering a comprehensive portfolio of medical supplies, to help organizations streamline supply management and improve access to essential patient care resources.

Through this partnership, clients can order medical supplies directly within the Axxess platform, helping organizations reduce duplicate data entry, improve order visibility and tracking, streamline procurement and lessen administrative burden. Clients also benefit from preferred pricing and flexible fulfillment options, including direct-to-patient home delivery.

“This partnership reflects Axxess’ commitment to connecting clients with trusted resources that help improve operational efficiency and support patient care,” said Tim Ingram, executive vice president of partnerships at Axxess. “Together, we’re helping providers simplify supply management and improve access to critical medical products.”

Mike Schenker, vice president of specialty home distribution at Henry Schein Home Solutions added: “Henry Schein Home Solutions is proud to partner with Axxess to deliver a seamless, integrated ordering experience that enables home health and hospice providers to order patient supplies directly within their existing workflow. This helps agencies reduce administrative costs, save staff time and focus more resources on delivering exceptional patient care.”
